Whippoorwill Unicorn

Lyld - Log Cabin

The Whippoorwill unicorn is white and sometimes hides in the horse pen. It shape shifts and can look like a white horse. It also paints trails with its tail because it has a magic tail. The trails are painted red and yellow. The unicorn is friends with the Whippoorwill monster and they have parties. The Trail also helps the monster get home. The unicorn lives in the woods.

Whippoorwill Weekly

Session 2: May 31- June 3

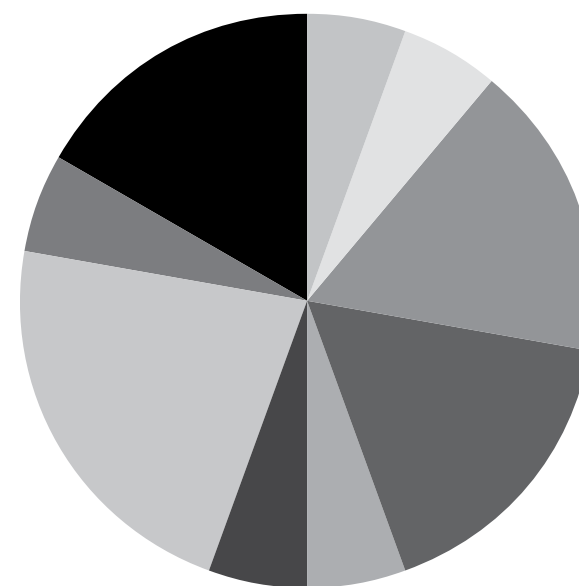

Beach Week

This week's theme was Beach week! Campers made octopus hats, CD fish, and beached themed pottery. In addition to crafts, campers channeled inner beach spirit at the pool, pond, creek, and Lake Yolo. Campers and counselors dressed up in beach and underwater inspired clothing on Friday. There was also a beach inspired campwide competition between Bear Cubs, Log Cabin, and Tee Pee. It was another great week at camp!

Witch Sighting

McHaney - Teepee

The Whippoorwill witch was sighted at her house. Counselor Katie says that she believes the witch is nocturnal. Counselor Ashley says that she's seminece and that she is green. Mary Alice says, "I know that if you go in her house, she will curse you!"

New to Camp

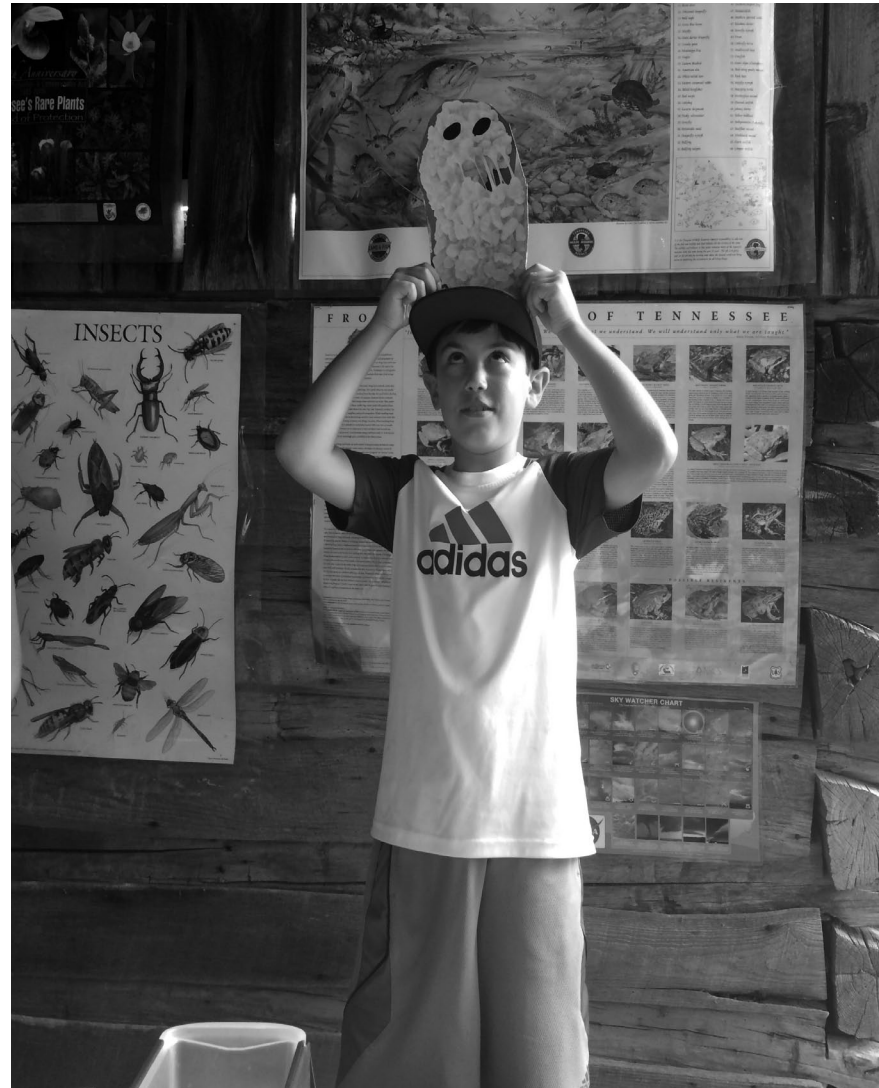

Emma - Log Cabin

I love my new camp because I love all my counselors and staff. I love my director. She is very nice and she is silly. She let the counselors say their signups in any accent . It was so funny! She also loves to play games,sing songs, and play with the counselors and campers. She loves log cabin and everyone who is in it, eve the counselors. She is so nice and always funny , creative, and courageous with all the campers and counselors!

The Monster

Abigail - Teepee

There is a Whippoorwill monster and this is what people say about the monster: some boy said that the monster is half man, half crawfish and some people think it is a yeti.

Special thanks to Nature Kelly for the fantastic pictures of campers at the Nature Museum!

Fernando the bat

Bailey - Teepee

Fernando the bat was spotte first period in a small part of the camp's gazebo. He was named by former counselor Alex.
